

What is the Minister for?

THE LEADER

Being there for advice and support on every aspect of church life. Determines new direction for others to follow

What is the Minister for?

VISITING

Meeting each member of the congregation in their home to encourage them and make them feel they belong

What is the Minister for?

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Volunteering in the community to build a better place for all to live in. Eg School Governorships, food banks, council meetings etc

What is the Minister for?

ENABLING

Helping others identify their own special call to service & Ministry and encouraging and enabling each to respond to the call and develop themselves

What is the Minister for?

COUNSELLING

Helping individuals with personal and spiritual problems, couples planning to marry or having marital problems, with the bereaved, the sick and the hospitalised

What is the Minister for?

WORSHIP AND PREACHING

Planning and leading services, preparing bible studies, and working with others on the church's worship team and developing their gifts too.

What is the Minister for?

WIDER LINKS

Taking a fair share of denominational and ecumenical responsibilities. Knowing denom. and Ecu. resources available to the local situation

What is the Minister for?

LEADING THE LEADERS

Supporting the church's lay leaders as they initiate new ideas and lead the church in it's existing life and witness. Delegation and accountability.

What is the Minister for?

PERSONAL AND SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Developing Bible (and other) study, developing a programme of ongoing learning for all. Leading retreats/other opportunities for personal reflection and growth

What is the Minister for?

EVANGELISM

Visiting new attendees and meeting with others “not yet in the church” to witness to the Gospel and promote the church community. Also training others in Evangelism as a focus

What is the Minister for?

ADMINISTRATION

Working with all committees as a “chief Executive” to ensure planning and implementation of the church’s programme of activity. Corresponding for the church and communicating through magazine and website

What is the Minister for?

OTHER

Define your own priority: